SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8. 1737.

11. 714.

Yesterday arrived the Mails due from Holland, France, and Flanders.

Petersburg, Sept. 10. O. S.

HE Court has received an Express from General Lascey, with a very full Account of an Engagement that has happened between the Ottoman and Russian Fleets, of which the following are the chief Particulars.

On the 9th of August Vice Admiral Bredall, in pursuance of General Lascey's Orders, sailed with his Flotilla, consisting of Long Boats, Prames, and other Flat Bottoms, to the Number of 100 Vessels; and when he came off of the Cape of Bissarionow, he saw some Turkish Vessels that were steering to the same Point. Upon this he thought fit to make nearer the Shore, and there to cast Anchor. About 10 o'clock in the Afternoon, the whole Fleet of the Turks came in Sight, which appear'd to be 2 Men of War, 13 Gaileys, and 47 Half Gaileys, in all 62 Sail; and one of the Men of War carry'd the Flag of the Admiral of the Porte. Upon this the Vice Admiral Bredall took all the necessary Measures for his Defence. He order'd some of his Ships to put in nearer to the Land, and caused 15 Cannon that carried each 3 Pound Ball, to be planted on the Sea Side. Toward 5 o'clock the Turks began to cannonade our Flotilla with very great Fury; but without doing any Mischief, all the Bullets flying over the Ships. We cannonaded them also on our Part, and there was a continual Fire on both Sides till 8 o'clock, when the Enemy seem'd to be in some Confusion; and indeed about that Time they left off Firing, and retired out of the Reach of our Cannon.

But next morning about 8 o'clock the Turks came on again. The Ship that carry'd their Chief Admiral's Flag, came nearest to our Flotilla, and made a great Fire upon our Vessels: But in return, he had such a Fire from the Cannon of our Prames, and from those that were planted on the Sea-shore, among which there were 2 of 12 Pound Ball; that after continual Cannonading on both Sides till Noon, the Enemy retired in Confusion. There was all the Reason that could be, to conclude by the Working of their Fleet, that the said Ship was very much damaged, as well as several others of their Fleet. But on our Side we had only 2 Men killed and 5 wounded.

Warsaw, Sept. 19. O. S. The Turkish Plenipotentiaries at Nimrow still give out, that the Grand Seigneur's Fleet in the Black Sea has beat the Flotilla of Russia. 'Tis certain there has been an Action between them, and the Russian Plenipotentiaries claim the Advantage of it. An Account of it is printed, in which Notice is taken of the uninterrupted Success of the Russian Arms, and especially the good Fortune which they have had never to sustain any considerable Loss; because in the Terms of the Relation, tho' the Battle that has happened in the Black Sea was very sharp, the Russians had no more than two Men killed and above 6 wounded, and that none of their Ships received any considerable Damage; whereas the Turkish Fleet, tho' consisting of Sultanas and Gaileys, has fared infinitely worse.

Letters from the Ukraine say, that Donduck Ombo, the Kan of the Calmucks, who is Tributary to Russia, having not perform'd the second Expedition which he had promised to undertake against the Tartars of Cuban; the latter, to the Number of near 20,000, had repass'd the River of Cuban, and had made an IncurSION along the Tanais, where they had plundered and burnt above 30 Villages of the Cossacks, took several thousand Prisoners, and afterwards returned to Cuban; but that all the Cossacks of that Country, joining together, pursued the Tartars with such Speed, that they oblig'd them to leave Part of their Prisoners and Booty behind them.

According to the last Advices from Nimrow, there has been another Conference between the Russian and Turkish Plenipotentiaries, in which we are assur'd new Proposals have been offered to serve as the Basis of the Negotiations of Peace, which Proposals, they say, have been approved of by the Turkish Ministers; so that they begin to entertain Hopes that a Peace may be concluded this Winter. Most of the little Dyets that were assembled in Great Poland, and in Polish Prussia for the Election of Deputies to the General Dyet, are broke up re infecta.

Hamburg, Sept. 30. O. S. The Berlin Mail came in last Time a Day later than it was expected, and brought no Letters: For the Post-Boy was stopp'd between Lerzen and Leptin, where all his Letters were taken out of his Bags, and then he was suffer'd to go on, without any other Molestation. It is believed this was done by Order of a certain Court; and 'tis even said, that since the Establishment of a Post in the Duchy of Saxe-Lawembourg, the Prussian Post-Boys, nor even the King of Prussia's Licensed Stage-Coaches, will not be suffer'd to pass that Way. It is remarkable, that the Letters taken, as above, out of the Berlin Mail, have not been sent forward by another Post, and are not yet arrived at our Office. It is feared this Affair will be attended with Consequences.

A particular Letter of the 2d Inst. O. S. from Petersburg says, That 2 Days before there arrived an Express from Count Munich in his Camp a League from Bender, with Advice that the Siege of that Place began the 7th of August, O. S. from which Time till the 11th, when the Courier was dispatch'd from the Camp, the Besiegers had been forming Trenches, Batteries, and Lines of Circumvallation; so that they were beginning to cannonade the Town. This Letter, which is perfectly contradictory to all our other Accounts from these Parts, adds, That Count Munich covers the Siege, and that the Grand Vizier is encamp'd but two Leagues from him.

Paris, Oct. 2. O. S. M. de Nicolai, First President of the Chamber of Accounts, dy'd here 5 Days ago, in the 80th Year of his Age, and is succeeded in that Office by his Son, who is the 9th of that honourable Family who has enjoy'd that eminent Post from Father to Son, without Interruption. We have an Account that Prince Ragotski and General Bonneval are enter'd Transilvania, at the Head of 40,000 Turks: And that the Grand Vizier was gone to encamp between Oczakow and the Russian Army, which has repass'd the Bog; and that by this Means the Russians Communication with that Place is entirely cut off. The Letters add, that the Emperor has lately sent to the Czarina, to desire a Supply of 20,000 Men.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bath, Oct. 3. On Saturday last died Mrs. Moore, the Wife of Mr. John Moore, of this City. As She was a Person seen by many, but known to very few, it is no Wonder if some much mistook her Character. The greatest Honour that can be done to her now, is to speak the plain Truth of her. Her natural Talents were a sharp Penetration, quick Apprehension, and solid Judgment. She spent most of her Time in a warm and diligent Search after Truth, of which she was a most disinterested and impartial Lover. For mere Speculative Truths she had little Taste, for Practical ones nobody could have a stronger. The God of Truth was the immutable Object of her Love and Devotion: His Will, as far as she could discover it by Reason and Revelation, was the unvariable Rule of all her Actions, as far as human Frailty would permit. Fair Minds, and candid Authors, were her great Favourites, as they improved her Understanding, and heightened her Morals. From a close and intimate Conversation with such Persons and Books, she became a great Mistress of the true Christian Philosophy. She submitted herself, and all that belong'd to her, to the Disposal of the Almighty, and always pray'd with her Understanding, and with her Heart, that his Will might be done. How great was the Consolation she received from this grand Principle, during the Two last Years of her Life! With how much Calmness and Resignation did she give up all the Agreeables of this World, of which she had not a few! With what Patience and Constancy did she bear the sore Evils of severe Pains, under which she linger'd to the utmost Stretch of human Sufferings. In these difficult Circumstances of hard Trial, she felt what it was to be good. She was supported, even to Gaiety, amidst such Torments of Body as a vicious Mind would have sunk under! The Decay of her Strength added to the Vigour of her Faith, and Confidence in that Being who is able, and can't but be willing, to make every intelligent Creature happy, upon the whole, who loves him, and keeps his Commandments. Her Hopes are now changed into Enjoyment, and her Relations, her Acquaintance, and all Mankind, have lost a most benevolent Friend by her Death. May they imitate her in a rational and unlimited Submission to the Will of that Being, who only knows our true Interest, and never fails to promote it, in every Step of his Providence.

Andover, Oct. 6. We had a very indifferent Fair at Weyhill, by Reason of the great Rains that fell Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Hops sold from 3 to 7 l. per Hundred. We have been pestered with a Gang of Highwaymen, who frequented the Fair, and used to travel round the Country, under a Pretence of trading in Handkerchiefs, Linnen, &c. and have taken some Hundreds of Pounds on the Highway from the Sheep-Dealers. Two of them last Monday Night robbed Mr. William Masey, (who keeps the White-Hart in Andover) coming from Fair, within a Mile of the Town, of about 20 s. and his Silver Watch, took the Bridle from his Horse's Head, and rode off towards Penton. Mr. Masey changed his Horse, and pursued them with one Mr. Broad of Andover; and having searched the Villages round about, traced them to Andover the same Night, where Mr. Masey and Mr. Broad seized one of those who robbed him, and another who belonged to the Gang, in Company with several others, at a House in this Town. The other who robbed Mr. Masey made his Escape at the Back-Door without his Horse, but took 3 with him out of the neighbouring Meadows; two belonging to Mr. Brice, Merchant in Andover, the other very unluckily happens to be Mr. —'s Mare. He who robb'd Mr. Masey, and is taken, confessed the Fact, and has impeached the other. In his Confession he owned, They had made it their common Practice to steal Horses for about 6 Weeks past; and that they had pitched upon a pretty little Black Horse, to carry off that Night, had they not been taken. They are both sent to Winchester. Their Names are Job Ward a Brafter, William Gerard a Barber; the other, who escaped, James Gerard, Brother to the latter, a Brafter; one 16, one 17, the other 22 Years old, and live in or near Shoreditch.

Several Paragraphs having lately been inserted in the Daily Advertiser, from the Old Lottery Office at Young Man's Coffee-house, Charging-Cross, "That the Demands at that Office for Receipts in Mr. Jernegan's Sale of the valuable Cistern, &c. have increased to treble the Number since the Information laid against him, before several of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, was honourably discharged, the said Justices unanimously agreeing, that Mr. Jernegan's Method of Sale was not comprehended in any of the Penal Statutes." And then proceeded to set forth, That Mr. Wilson of the said Office was convicted of the same from the very beginning, upon his own Judgment, &c. and therefore disposed of Mr. Jernegan's Receipts in the most publick Manner.

His Majesty's said Justices of the Peace, mentioned in the said Paragraphs, think it a Duty incumbent upon them, to acquaint the Publick, That it was without their Leave, Privy, or Consent, that the said Paragraphs were printed. And Col. De Veil, whose Name has, upon this Occasion, been made use of, touching the Information laid before him against Mr. Jernegan, doth for himself (and by the Authority of the two other Gentlemen in the Commission of the Peace, who acted with him in Mr. Jernegan's Affair) declare, That neither He nor They are so presumptuous, as to think their Determination of the Case before them should be so definitive, as that Mr. Jernegan's Method of Sale may not be comprehended in any of the Penal Statutes, but only are of Opinion, that Mr. Jernegan, upon the Information laid before them, is not liable to the Penalty of those Statutes, which induced them to acquit him of that Accusation.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible Fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surpassing Handfomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morpew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, and a noble Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is so soft and so gentle, that it does not hurt the Skin, but rather increases the softness of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and the Crown, red or rough to a natural, youthful Fairness, smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates, neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Part of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lows, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.
